

Wedding rings (Entry 2+)

Conjunctions and sentence ordering

Conjunctions are 'joining words' – they join ideas in a sentence, e.g.

My name is Anna. I come from Brazil.

My name is Anna and I come from Brazil.

1. Join the sentences below using a conjunction from the box.
2. Then put the sentences into the correct order to make a story.
(Read the story again before you start!)

when	and	and	and	and
and	and	because	but

- My name is Rosa. I am from the Dominican Republic.
- Finally, the big day arrived. We met at my house.
- My wedding was small. We decided to save our money for the honeymoon.
- We opened the front door. We saw the wedding rings on the dining room table!
- I looked for the rings. I could not find them anywhere.
- We arrived at the registry office. We checked everything was ready.
- My friend and her husband took off their rings. They gave them to us.
- The honeymoon ended. We returned home.
- I was starting to feel sad. My best friend had a great idea.
